

The central library, an extravagant building in the main campus of the university extends its facilities to all colleges in the campus among which ACCER is a part. The four storied building has a total plinth area of 4000 sq.mt. with adequate furniture and equipment of international standards. The library has come up with all the basic hardware and software system essential for modern library and information services. Library provides wireless access facility, through which members can connect their laptop and utilize e-resources as long as they like

The library has more than 60,000 books and back volume journals. It also have a collection of more than 7,000 back volumes of Indian and foreign journals, act as a source of extra information for students, teachers and scientists working under the university. Its fully automated and online public access catalogue is available.

The central library provides its members with computer lab facilities and free internet accessibility during its working hours. The library come up as a hub of knowledge enhancing facilities such as databases on CD-ROM, document processing etc. The library being a part of e - Granth project, the KAU has developed using Koha- integrated library management software. e journals, indiastat.com, Delnet, CABI-e - Books, CAB Abstracts, Krishi Praba are some of the facilities available in the library

---